

PROGRAMME

THE ART CAR BOOT FAIR 8 JULY 2007

DOORS OPEN MID DAY

Don't be shy, get stuck in! Rummage and indulge your whims! You won't be disappointed!
All manner of artwares, services and performances on offer today only!

FOOD

With chefs as delicious as these the food's a mere bonus yet you're in for a moorish treat or two with the fabulous Sam Clark and James Knight of Moro cooking up divine paella and other Iberian delicacies, form an orderly queue and try not to drool...

DRINKS

Have lots...from Pia's bar just as you come in to the car park to help you make increasingly canny purchasing decisions as afternoon glides effortlessly and smoothly into evening. Elsewhere in the car park get fresh with Naja's juice box(!), take-away 'love potions' from London's finest barman, Dick Bradsell, and mad polish dogs in the English sun (fingers crossed on all counts!)

2007 ACBF MOTTO

If it rains it rains, this is an English car park not a Carribean beach.

THE BOOTY STAGE

High noon – the utterly fabulous Pam Hogg (who's due to be knighted for services to glam-punk and her uber-cool record collection), will be DJing and then performing LIVE! From her NEW! limited edition CD, special signed editions available here today only! Listen up then make your own impulsive purchases!

12.45 – Richard Strange, fresh from his offspring's nuptials takes the stage as our super-special Master of Ceremonies!
Shortly after that – Sophie Parkin and Richard Dyer premier their Shirley Temple and Bing Crosby routine, only there won't be anything routine about this tap dancing and crooning extravaganza! Don't miss it – it's a one-off booty special!

1.15 – Hitman Hearn, Whoopee's fave disc spinner takes to the decks.

2.15 – the marvellous TEASEMAIDS raise more than a titter as they get into the swing of their all-new burlesque act... they strip, you melt in sheer wonder and awe.

3pm – yet another dynamic, some might say idiosyncratic, duo storm the stage as Richard Strange and Pam Hogg make yet more sweet music together...

3.20 – DJ Lush with a set to enliven, invigorate and buy lots of art by...

4pm – Leigh Clarke, the artworld's favourite and most irreverent human beat box takes the mike, and occasionally the mickey...

5pm – A rare treat in store at 5, BIG OMISSION, watch this space!

Plus! at 5.30 – The Rubbishmen of Soho, with the last hurrah on the Booty Stage. At the end of the day it doesn't get better than this!

THE ART CAR BOOT FAIR 8 JULY 2007

ART & OTHER BOOTY

In no particular order:

ABIGAIL LANE – procreation and relocation aside, our fave mum-to-be is still firmly in creative control with a series of fine prints based on a deck of cards, a touch of Sav's magic and a game of chance...real Peter Blake prints and jokers included...

GAVIN TURK – less art car boot fair and more art car boot sale, travel at will through the land of GT, you can stop him, but you might not be able to buy one...

PETER BLAKE – we're only going to say this once, make a bee-line and pick up a real Peter Blake print for £25, yes, really, off you go!

TRACEY EMIN – in a car park selling her art? Well yes, she is, from the boot of her brand new beamer! She'll be here all day so don't all rush!

SARAH BAKER – No Logo? Not bloomin' likely, hip-hop bling, griffins, native Americans iconography, souped up red convertibles, all vying for your attention as the ACBF poster girl promises to help you catch your dreams...and maybe make some of them come true!

BOB AND ROBERTA SMITH – from the man who made concrete rubbing sexy, and it's all in the fabulous cause of RESONANCE FM, save this brilliant radio station and get rubbing!

JESSICA VOORSANGER – get someone you love (or possibly really don't!) a real teenage fan club, squeals and offers of various parts of flesh to be signed included...not for shrinking violet's or men of a certain age...

SWEDISH BLONDE – Red Ken's ally and staunch royalist...or something like that anyway...irreverence as sure as rain at Wimbledon, she's the 'old broad bean' of the boot fair...flock to her '76 roller silvershadow for some fizz and messy fun...

PLUS! RHYS IFANS – will he? won't he?...maybe if the sun shines...x

CEDRIC CHRISTIE – artist turned rally driver, turning up with a whole stable of cars and some customized wheel paintings...rumour is Chapmans and Turks amongst the rubber and he still 'aint sorry btw!

ART LAB – Parquet you can boast about from the Savage school of art, art you can actually lay!

ZOE GRIFFITHS – 'I'm bored paper based activities'...all in self sealed bags, water proof art (which could be handy) all from Zoe's bicycle and trailer!

DAVID HARRISON – taking a break from creating his massive chandelier piece for Victoria Miro next year, David brings his inimitable kitsch to the boot fair with a series of one-off lampshades. Have a turning on ceremony and sob with delight into your babycham...

CARTER PRESENTS – cool videos in the back of a dirty white van...watch out for film buffs who may bore you and gropers who may...err, grope you.

LIMA PROJECTS – those cool cats who sold you streets of London last year have grown up into the men who are selling the world! Buy back your piece of the action globe here, before someone else does.

TRUCK ART – these cool curatorial collective trucksters have turned bootleggers flogging all sorts of under the exhaust pipe knock-offs...

MARK AND MICHELLE HAMPSON – more PIE Island paraphernalia, fabulous prints and smoothies, take home a souvenir from your sojourn in a Brick lane carpark...maybe via a tanning bed if you're headed back to suburbia tonight.

RICHARD CLEGG – from Snow Dooms to miniature colliseums, there's always a mini-hi-drama of sorts with this one... and something of a spectacle too...all atop a rare Panda...

LUCIA HELENKA & DAISUKE SAKAGUCHI – you could look cooler than this but you'd have to work damn hard at it so why bother...just get with the gold embossed Kahlo and Basquiat t-s (and pants) and watch Shoreditch House weep into its rooftop pool with envy...

HADRIAN PIGOTT – perhaps a little mandolin plucking to soothe after a high-speed race from the Cornish surf, fingers crossed!

TOD HANSON – customised records out of a box, proper boot sale delivery, proper art inside!

DAVID J BATCHELOR – these were a big hit last year, old figurines picked up for a song at real boot sales then re-worked to resonate anew and destined for far cooler mantels...yours for example!

KARMAKABS – in a car park of chaos, karma kabs will cool, calm and chill you out... what are you waiting for, sink into the back seat and think Goa, yoga, ommmm...

VINTAGE FASHIONS AND VAGUE MAGAZINE – Esther and Matthew have treats in store and cool simply oozing from every inch of fabric and newsprint...

SCRAWL COLLECTIVE – For those who aren't planning on having a wash, drop by "Doodle Bod" where well known graffiti and street artists from Ric Blackshaw's outfit will be licensed and armed to scribble originals straight on your skin.

JANE SIMPSON – Back by popular demand is the "Chai cake and chat tent". From what we saw last year, Jane offers a more than welcome rest, so beware of the queues circling this lady's booty.

JAMIE LAU – rustling up his own version of Pirate DVD covers he'll be selling DVDS and records with a twist, each cover is hand-drawn by the man himself.

CHARLIE MURPHY AND SCOTIA LUHRS – Charlie says 'a delectable selection of limited edition photographic prints, cards and multiples, Scotia says 'FK Starbucks' with a mug...

ROSE BLAKE – rising star of the ACBF spreading the word FK ART LET'S DART, if you don't know who Jockey Wilson is, well, you need one of these....(strictly limited, get in the queue).

ANNE McCloy – this mistress of understatement back for the second year in a row with the fabulous FK OFF! T's as sported by Sue Webster and Pam Hogg...get one and maybe Bobby Gillespie will hang out with you too...especially if you flaunt your limited edition signed Sue and Tim bog roll, available here only today!

VIVIENNE WESTWOOD – emblazoned across the windscreen, the fashionista politico statement reads 'THIS IS CRAP', which leaves us wondering, what is crap...Art? Fashion? The war in Iraq? Hmmmm, one to ponder as you sift through the Westwood babygro's...

KATHY BATTISTA & VICKY HAWKINS – "Touch Type Diptych" brings back some retro flair, sexy 60's Secretaries typing custom-made greeting cards with old fashioned typewriters live (!) onto vintage wallpaper, greetings to be declared by the punter's whims and fancy plus memento mori for all occasions...

WHOOPEE CLUB – back seat peeps for a pound, say-no-more!

BEN TURNBULL – Action stations – first viewing of Ben's new (!) horrors-of-war tableaux plus! Action Man body bags and coffins, action man included plus choices of how he met his maker...plus BJT posters and faux military patch, ideal for your Lawrence corner khaki number....

MARCUS & HARVEY HARVEY – more simple works of heartwarming genius, just don't let your grand dad clean his pipe with 'em.

KEITH TALENT – Quote "odds and sods from the gallery artists – is it next week? I suppose we better get something together!"

MARK JONES – If your pockets aren't deep but your patience is long, Mark promises a real-life portrait for a bargain hunter's delight of £2. Be prepared to get a tan and enjoy the view, this one requires you to sit still, and pretty. Oh, and you have to be female....sorry boys!

DICK BRADSELL & SOPHIE PARKIN – Love potions from the master of the cocktail hour and his chief sampler....whatever the state of your love life there'll be one just crying out for you...cure-all-heartache and ultra-seductive powers, all potions have love poems included...(maybe a spell or two)

ANTHONY GROSS – nestling under the bonnet of a VXR super car, in the clearing of the digital forest is a Megatropolis...and don't miss out on the super-liquid-silver shimmer of the digital forest diptych, one day all forests will look like this!

MOLL AND MARTY – fabulous (as bought by Madonna) jewellery from Marty, and Moll's Mini's.... delicious little paintings from the first lady of Soho - decorate a whole dolls house in minutes, or your fridge, or maybe the inside of your car!

JAMES COOPER – Small images of big apples, a 'halloween zoo york'... in real oil paint from the lovely Jimbo...a true original!

BEN WESTWOOD – Viv's eldest sexing up the car park with some outrageous erotica from the back of his Sweeny style Ford Granada!

Le GUN – more 'extraordinary displays of illustrative and narrative talent' from this outfit whose eccentric genius knows no end, bargains galore and bangeroake(!) from the fab Mr PHIL DIRTBOX, somewhere in or near NIGEL's routemaster bus!

NIGEL ASKEW'S ROUTEMASTER – a genuine 30 foot hammer and sickle from east-side of check point charlie, only here today! Photo's available!

LUKASZ SKAPSKI – 2008 is sorted with the Tractor Boy Calendar, you'll make dates and then not keep them as you prefer to sit in and gaze at these fabulous machines (and their drivers!) – find them in the mini moke...

PL ART – Direct from Modelarnia in Gdansk, a cool collective of hot Polish artists hitting the car park with a heady cocktail of art and ‘mad dogs’ (don’t ask, just try one, or three), plus first chance to see Peter Fuss’s ‘For the laugh of God!’...

IAN MONROE – flock in awe to this cool dude’s hyperbolic station wagon in woodgrain and marble veneer, get your own number plate customised and snap up (quick as you can) one of Ian Monroe’s fabulous hand-cut, unique bumper stickers...one of the true buys of the day!

STUART SEMPLE – If your senses are overloaded then head ‘back to the future’ to this cool posse who straddle the cusp of art and fashion and have just the remedy, bringing you the Ultimate Art Object – scientifically proven to counteract “aesthetic stress”. Trained experts will be on hand.

IAN DAWSON – We’ve had the meaning of LIFF and now the ACBF premieres the non-meaning of THE GLYPH, get your uniquely meaningless and obscure object of desire and beauty here...no glyph will be like any other...the best things in life are random...

TROLLEY – Gigi, a golden trolley and the most eclectic selection of photography books on the globe...

WILMA JOHNSON – the only original neo-naturist at the ACBF this year, we’re hoping the weather gets a little errr, hotter, or you might never spot-‘er...seriously, look out for the limited ed. flamenco booty from the wonderful Wilma!

ISHA BOHLING – Big balloons will show you the way...then it all gets micro...mini paintings from the back of a mini – all to a soundtrack of ‘family traffic’...you won’t believe your ears, especially when ‘her mothers smokers cough interacts as if an exhaust pipe is about to fall off an old banger’ !!!!

ALICE MARA – don’t be shy, chuck a coconut...or maybe a pot...acts of demolition and creation for all you passive aggressives out there...

BETHNAL GREEN WORKING MENS CLUB – well some people ‘ave to...simply the best place to chill and have a larf with Warren and the working boys (and girls), give your vocal chords a stretch in the BGWMC karaoke!

STRANGeworks COLLECTIVE – get in on the act with actual kits to stimulate the performer in you, tasks and masks for everyone whether your dramatic persona is nascent, intermediate or even advanced...get top tips from these theatrical masters and pina colodas! Or was that margheritas...? (sorry...bad joke, if you don’t get it you’re definitely a nascent or intermediate).

JONATHAN ALLEN – watch out! Something might get ‘disappeared’...that’s all we can say!

ARNAUD DESJARDIN & SARAH DOBAI – worried about your carbon footprint but not sure what it is? Head to this pitch for the answer...take home your own carbon footprint and never have to worry about it again!

LINDA PERSSON & KIRSTEN COOKE– make-your-own-sound cards, plus cuppas and curios laid out on kalaidoscope wares bearing ‘male’ objectives! Careful where you sit down ladies! Hopefully a Swedish ‘butch’ dancer too! (that’s a typo btw...)

CENTRAL SATANIC MARTINS ARTISTIC SACRIFICE STALL – Sacrifices promised on the hour every hour plus! Satanic Bingo called by Giant 7’4” Satan (no stilts), yukky body part jelly moulds, headless jelly babies and chicken drumstick candles! Mmmmm, c’mon, release your inner goth!

ADVENTURE ECOLOGY PROJECT – only here, at the Superhero tuk tuk, will you be able to buy art that grows wild and beautiful on scrubland, plus a seed packet you’ll want to frame after scattering its contents somewhere scrubby...seriously cool way to cool the planet!

SPACED OUT – invite you to nibble on their biscuiti...shaped like those pongy tree things in mini cabs but tasting like you got ‘em from Fortnums.

ANDREA MASON – no aphoristic salon saloon this year but our fave lit lady will be flogging cool wristbands so you too can join the literati...

SPAMSHIRTS – they’ve gone bamboo, all your fave SPAM (how long is yours then?) plus NEW! ‘Unsolicited femail’ t-shirts...love it!

JOSHUA KNOWLES – master snake oil salesman presenting ‘a storm in a tea cup’, we’re hoping it doesn’t turn into a storm in our carpark!

SHOWROOM DUMMIES – offering a ‘personal experience’...something you can’t ‘flip’ on e-Bay!...all to be revealed...

JOHN CLAYMAN – hitch a ride on his...errr, canoe? Is that a euphemism...? (head to the orange volvo to find out)

JUST THE TICKET – a shoo in, this trio entertained the thronging crowds at the entrance last year with their car top band and now they are BACK, and in and have a caravan, queues, tickets and muzak...welcome to a mini glasto!

ALL CASH PURCHASES ONLY...NO CREDIT CARDS...(SOME BOOTERS MAY TAKE CHEQUES IF YOU’RE LUCKY) NEAREST CASHPOINTS: Barclays at Spitalfields, Texaco Garage on Shoreditch High Street, Liverpool Street Station.

ASHTON & HAYWARD WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL THE BOOTERS, MARSHALLS AND FLYERERS WITH SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR FAB DESIGNER VANESSA ‘SWEDISH BLONDE’ FRISTEDT, BOB PAIN and all at OMNI, CHIP and K2 SCREEN, TAMSIN O’HANLON and all at TRUMAN BREWERY, NICK CUNARD, DAWN AND ZOE at IDEA GENERATION, CALUM SUTTON AND CATHY and of course SIMON EWART, ELLA TACCHI AND VAUXHALL MOTORS FOR THEIR CONTINUED ENTHUSIAM AND SUPPORT. PLUS! HURRAH FOR AVA MAY, THE OFFICIAL ACBF MASCOT!
